Release creative energy, commune with fellow artists, rest, exercise, enjoy fresh mountain air and nourishing food. Two primary choices for painting creation are either watercolor or oils. A supply list will be sent upon registration.

Painting Creation with Theodora Tilton - Come explore the natural world through painting with award-winning artist and teacher Theodora Tilton. Choosing oil or watercolor, you'll join students at all levels painting "en plein aire" in the beautiful mountains surrounding historic Shrine Mont. Students will start with the basics and work through the process of creating a painting with each day taking you to a new location. Theodora has taught art and design for Marymount University, Northern Virginia Community College, Montgomery College and for the Fairfax County Park Authority.
