Transition Coach, Mimi Weaver

I am a certified coach, with many years of training and experience in coaching and spiritual direction. I have a passion for helping you discover who you really are and how to use your gifts in a way that is both life-giving for you and enriching for others.

I love this work because I've been in that stuck place myself and know how discouraging and frustrating it can be. I also know how wonderful it feels to finally be free of what's been holding me back.

Nothing brings me more joy than helping others get unstuck and find their true path. I would love to support you on your journey toward a life of freedom and peace.
